

3 types of meetings you can run

① Meetings ^{#new}

- Meetings.hackclub.com
- a collection of club meetings that have been run by Hack Club leaders in the past. Tried and true.
- each meeting includes:
 - a full recording of the entire meeting
 - "editorial notes" from me or the club leader, specifically explaining what they did right (w/ timestamps), what makes this meeting so good, and do's / don'ts
 - "cooking instructions" - step-by-step instructions for how to run the meeting
 - all resources the club leader used in the meeting (e.g. slide shows)

② Workshops

- workshops.hackclub.com
- guided tutorials for club leaders to run in their meetings
- no instructions for how to run the workshop - but if there is a meeting available for that workshop, it will be linked.
- workshops in the "start here" section will all have meetings. After you finish that section, you "graduate" as a club leader to workshops w/o guided meetings

③ your own thing

- Once you feel like you're a good enough leader to run your own meetings, you can start doing your own thing
- if you feel like one of your custom meetings went great, turn it into a meeting for other club leaders.
